Special Rates for Theater Patrons

Mr. Chas. Scott, manager of the Lexington Opera House, is now giving the public the very best attractions that are being given in the large cities this season. Those already given at Mr. Scott's house for the holidays have been great successes and have been more than satisfactory to the public, and he should be given encouragement for the effort he is making to furnish Lexington and surrounding towns with these big attractions.

Paris sends large delegations to most of them, and would send still much larger if our citizens could get a 60 cents round trip rate for these occasions from the interurban people. The news in behalf of our people who now patronize this house of amusement suggests that Mr. Scott, of the Opera house, and Superintendent Crawford, of the Interurban road, get together in a conference in regard to this reduced rate question. We feel sure that if a 60 cents round trip rate will be given, that it will be of great benefit to all concerned.

A large number have already expressed their intention of going to Lexington to see Francis Wilson tomorrow night, also to see the Cohen & Harrison's big production, "Counsel For Defense," a few days later, if the special rate was on double the number of our citizens would attend.

We have already received a communication from Superintendent Crawford saying that he will give this rate if the Paris people will appreciate it and patronize the theater cars, we are not authorized however, to make this statement as official until we have heard further from Superintendent Crawford.

THEATRICAL.

JOHN GRIFFITH IN "FAUST."

Considerable interest is manifest, especially in social circles, in the approaching engagement at the Paris Grand of Mr. John Griffith, who will appear next Thursday evening in an elaborate revival of Goethe's tragic masterpiece, "Faust."

This interest is occasioned, not alone by the recognized high position occupied by Mr. Griffith among the greatest of the present day tragedians, but from the fact that so large a portion of the local public are able to appreciate the poetic beauty of classic plays and are eager to witness Griffith's actual performance. Mr. Griffith presents an entirely original version of "Faust," which will be found to differ somewhat from other versions of the play—to present certain novel features of treatment, thought to be improvements and to be a full, adequate, correct and satisfying presentation of Goethe's magnificent work.

The role of Mephisto, the Devil, which Mr. Griffith plays, gives him full scope of his undoubted dramatic genius, and his development of the character is indeed a masterful achievement. He has appeared here previously in "Faust," and his true greatness in the character is heretofore well known locally.

The role of Marguerite is played by Miss Edith Totten this season, and she is credited with a very convincing and satisfying performance. The entire company is said to be fully capable, and a complete and elaborate scenic and electrical production of "Faust" is assured.

FRANCIS WILSON.

Any person who is desirous of a good laugh is cordially recommended to see the popular comedian, Francis Wilson, in his latest success, "When Knights Were Bold". Those of theater-goers who thought that the comedian would not be seen to as good advantage as in the musical comedy, in which he made his earlier reputation, have been forced to admit that they were in the wrong, for not since the days of "Ermine," has Wilson had a role which offers him such a splendid opportunity as Sir Guy de Vere in this comedy. Wilson is funny, very, very funny in his own Wilsonian way—and in much that he does he is inimitable. Laughter comes fast and furious in all of the three acts, but the second, where the hero takes backward to the twelfth century, is one of the most amusing the stage has seen in a very long time. Charles Frohman has given "When Knights Were Bold," a very handsome production and has surrounded the star with an exceptionally capable supporting company. Miss Edna Brune will have the leading feminine role and Adelaide Wilson, the comedians daughter will have an important part. Charles Frohman presents Francis Wilson at the Lexington Opera House to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, Dec. 30th.

"THE COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENSE."

"The Counsel for the Defense," a new play by Henry Irving Dodge, a magazine writer and novelist of some note, will be presented at the Lexington opera house New Year's matinee and night and Saturday matinee and night January 2.

The new play is under the management of Messrs. Cohan & Harris, who in this venture embark in a new field of enterprise in producing, instead of musical comedy, a series of dramatic offerings. It is said that Mr. Dodge, who has not hitherto contributed to the stage, and who, by the way, is a grand nephew of Washington Irving, has supplied a play of strong human interest which has been staged under the personal direction of George M. Cohan, who brings to it his undeniable talents as a creator of "stage business," together with boldness and freedom from traditional technique.

The story of "The Counsel for the Defense" is based upon a mysterious murder and it falls to the lot of the heir, a young criminal lawyer, to defend the man accused of the crime, and a most interesting legal complication arises, which will no doubt prove especially interesting to those connected with that profession.

A most surprising condition confronts "The Counsel for the Defense," so it is said, and makes the situation extremely tense. The play depends solely upon the love interest and in this respect it is said that the author has gone back to first principles in dramatic construction and has made no attempt to point a moral or discuss social or political questions.

Messrs. Cohan & Harris have provided a company for the presentation of "The Counsel for the Defense" that is more than ordinarily capable, with each member especially fitted for the role that he is to portray. There are but ten members in the company and they are all well known players.

The leading role, that of the lawyer, is assigned to Frederick Perry, who created the principal character in "The Man of the Hour" and played in it during its long run in New York City, while the principal feminine part is to be played by Miss Muriel Starr, a young actress who has attracted the attention of all the New York critics and managers. Others are Forrest Robinson, Thomas Findlay, Sidney Ainsworth, Deidre Louis, Lynn Pratt, Horace James, Winthrop Chamberlain and Grace Heyer.

Messrs. Cohan & Harris have provided an elaborate scenic equipment for their new play and playgoers of this will have an opportunity of passing first judgment on the worth of "The Counsel for the Defense."

Democracy's Future.

Senator Charles A. Culbertson, of Texas, has written to a New York newspaper in answer to an inquiry as to his views on the "reorganization" of the Democratic future Democratic issues the subjoined letter. It contains that which is characteristic of the Texas Senator—good common sense and good Democracy. It is important at this time as the Texas Senator is the leader of his party in the upper branch of Congress, is one of Mr. Bryan's most trusted campaign managers and is himself prominently mentioned four years hence.

"In my judgment there is no occasion for a reorganization of the Democratic party, and, consequently, have no suggestions to make as to steps to be taken toward such reorganization.
Every state and territory was fully represented at the Denver convention, giving assurance of local organizations in accord with the majority sentiment.

The National Committee is likewise representative of the party in the states and territories. My information is,

and with this am in thorough agreement, that the committee contemplates taking action at an early day which will not only make its a continuing body in name, but in fact and substance, pushing the work of organization in the dissemination of political information, and generally making ready for the next campaign.

The importance of this cannot be too strongly emphasized. "It is not a doubtful or debatable question with me for what issues the party should stand. It should insist esolutely upon its fundamental principles and its time honored policies, an enumeration of which would necessarily lengthen this letter, and perhaps is not included in your inquiry. As new questions arise, the course of the party upon them should be measured and determined by these principles and policies. What new questions may be at issue in the next national campaign none can say, but it is hardly an unsafe prediction that if any arise they can be solved by the application of the organic faith and the accepted doctrines of the party.

"Southern Democrats, in my opinion, should not any more than Democrats of any other section of the country, seek to arrogate to themselves as such the leadership of the party. The party and its aspirations are as broad as the Union. Whatever leadership there may be should come from character, ability and the advocacy of sound Democracy, regardless of locality or section."

Sugar-Fed Cows

The Wisconsin dairyman who has found that molasses fattens his cows and increases their milk while improving the quality has merely put to practical use the enlightened view of the dietic value of sugar which we owe to the new chemistry of food.

The notion that sweets are deleterious in themselves has gone the way of other food fallacies. In its place is the scientific recognition of sugar as the equal of starch in fat-forming and heat producing qualities and its inclusion as a ration in the diet of the German soldiers. Confectionery with a "fuel value" of 1,680 calories surpasses roast beef, porter house steak, mutton chops and bread, while chocolate leads the whole list of articles of diet in supplying energy.

Who knows but some investigator of the future will find in the matinee girl's caramels the foundation of that physical vigor and mental alertness which is the admiration of foreign observers? Or discover in our seventy-six pounds per capita consumption of sugar annually the physical basis of our eminence among nations?

New Minority Leader a Ken- tuckian.

Champ Clark, the new leader of the minority in the national House of Representatives, is a brilliant debater, a good parliamentarian and a game fighter.
His leadership will doubtless reflect credit upon him and upon the discretion of the Democratic party. He succeeds John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, who has been a distinguished member of the house for sometime and one of the most distinguished Southerners in Congress. Mr. Williams surpasses Mr.
Clark in scholarship. Mr. Clark as events will prove, surpasses Mr. Wil-lams in generalship and is a discipli-narian of forces.

Mr. Clark, although now a Missourian, and for a time a Kansan, is a native of Kentucky. He is the type of Kentuckians of which the state has always been proud, a broad shouldered, deep chested, clear eyed, quick witted man with a keen sense of humor, a good grasp of affairs, a talent for oratory, a voice for oratory, and a heart as big as a ham. He is one of the best known and best liked members of Congress throughout the Country. Kentucky will be glad to see him at the head of Democratic affairs in the national House.

Every Woman an Art Gallery.

Susanne Crocroft, in an address to her sex, says it is the sacred duty of every woman to become Venus.

"Glossy hair, pearly teeth, the glistening eye," she says, "are not signs of woman's vanity. They are the powerful tools that she may wield for good and it is her duty to use them. Beauty is education. A graceful statue, a beautiful landscape, educates and inspires. Why should not the graceful form or the beautiful face do the same?"

"Nowadays men haven't the time to visit art galleries, but women can bring the beauties of the art galleries into the home. Every woman can be a Venus.

You can't change bone, to be sure, but you can change the mold of the flesh to suit yourselves."

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done a worth more than five hundred dollars to me.
I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

Only Got Six Feet.

It cost $4,000,000 to bury the late emperor of China. But with all that he only got his six little feet, just the same as you and we will get. And then, too, we do not doubt that he is having no better time now than the everyday heathen Chinaman who preceded him to that clime.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Epire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says:
"Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antifermen. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial, and lung affections, and is especially good on those with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from the lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:
"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose.
Holding a fixed quantity of the oil of hydrogen in the stomach it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon entecephal, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most useful preparation and gives relief in cases of nervous gastritis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acid."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, warts, scrofulous swellings and old sores or ulcers.
Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

The Scrap Book

Sure of One.

There is a certain congressman from New England, a self made man, who is noted in Washington for two things, his quick wit and pride in his Celtic origin.

He was walking down Pennsylvania avenue one fine evening with a fellow member from Kansas when the westerner, looking at the sky, remarked,
"How bright Orion is tonight!"

"A-r-rh!" replied the New Englander.
"So that is O'Ryan, is it? Well, thank the Lord there's one Irishman in heaven anyhow!"—Lippincott's.

OPPORTUNITY.

Master of human destinies am I!
Fame, love and fortune are on my footsteps wait.

Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and fields remote, and passing by Hovel and mart and palace soon or late,
I knock unbidden once at every gate.
If sleeping, wake; if feasting, rise before I turn away. It is the hour of fate.
And they who follow me reach every state.
Mortals desire and conquer every foe
Save death, but those who doubt or hesitate.

Condemned to failure, penury and woe,
Seek me in vain, uselessly implore—

—John J. Ingalls.

The Guessing Game.

A pompous English peer, an important figure in the upper chamber by reason of a very long and very bushy beard, had dismissed his valet for the night.
Shortly afterward, however, he was much annoyed to hear peals of laughter from below and called back the man to explain. The valet answered that it was just a little joke, but his lordship would have none of it and demanded details angrily.

"Well," admitted the man, with reluctance, "it was really a little game we were having, my lord."

"What game?"

"Well, my lord, a kind of guessing game."

"Don't be a fool, Walters. I rang for you in order to get an explanation.
What guessing game are you playing?"

"Guessing what?"

"We blindfolded the cook, to tell you the truth, my lord, and then one of us kissed her, and she had to guess who it was. The footman held the mop up, and she kissed it and then cried out,
'Oh, your lordship, how dare you?'"

A Doubtful Accomplishment.

A man who stuttered badly went to a specialist and after ten difficult lessons learned to say quite distinctly,
"Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers." His friends congratulated him upon this splendid achievement.

"Yes," said the man doubtfully, "but it's s-s-such a d-d-d-derely d-d-d-difficult rem-mark to w-w-work into an ordin-nary c-c-convers-s-sa-tion, y' know."

Must Have Had Experience.

When Dr. Thompson, a distinguished Scotch clergymen, was minister of Markinch he happened to preach from the text, "Look not upon the wine when it is red in the cup," from which he made a most eloquent and impressive discourse against drunkenness, stating its evil effects on the heart, head and purse. Several of his observations were leveled at two cronies with whom he was well acquainted who frequently poured out libations to the rosy god. At the dismissal of the congregation the two friends met, the doctor being close behind them.
"Did you hear, Johnnie?" quoth the one.

"Did I hear? Wha' didna hear? I ne'er winked an e'e the haill sermon."

"Awel, an' what thought ye o't?"

"Adeed, Davie, I think he has been a lad in his day or he couldna dis-couse sea weel about it. Ah, he's been a sleek hand, the moonster."

Doing His Best.

A fat man entered a restaurant that served dinner at the fixed price of 75 cents. He knotted a napkin about his neck and fell to heavily—so heavily, in fact, that the waiter, after a whispered conversation with the proprietor, approached him and said:

"Beg, pardon, sir, but I'll have to charge you a quarter extra, you eat so much."

The fat man, red and short of breath from his excessive gorging, said earnestly:

"For goodness' sake, don't do that!
I'm nearly dead now from eating 75 cents' worth. If you make me eat another quarter I'll bust."

Resurrections.

The world is full of resurrections.
Every night that folds us up in darkness is a death, and those of you that have been out early and have seen the first of the dawn will know it. The day rises out of the night like a being that has burst its tomb and escaped into life.—George Macdonald.

Got the Signal.

Railway men—conductors, engineers and brakemen—are so accustomed to communicate with each other by means of gestures that the habit of looking for such dumb signals becomes a kind of second nature. In this connection a western railway official tells of an amusing incident in that part of his state where it is so common for cattle to be run over that the manager of one "jerkwater" line required his engineers to report all such accidents, with full particulars as to place, time and circumstance.

One day a complaint was received at headquarters that a valuable cow had been killed on a certain day and by a certain engine. The case was referred to the proper department, but referred to the proper department, but reference to the files showed that the engineer had failed to report such an accident. Accordingly he was sent for and asked why he had omitted to report the matter.

"I didn't know I hurt the cow," he said.

"Then you remember hitting her?"

"Yes, and I slowed up as she rolled over on her back. But she waved her feet for me to go ahead, and so I concluded she was all right."—Harper's Weekly.

His Military Title.

A traveler in Texas says that he was riding along a cattle trail near the New Mexico line when he met a rather pompous looking native of the region, who introduced himself as Colonel Higgins of Devil's River. "Were you a colonel in the Confederate army?" the traveler asked. "No, sah." "On the Union side, then?" "No, sah; never was in no wah." "Belong to the Texas rangers?" "No, sah; I do not." "Ah, I see; you command one of the state militia regiments." "No, sah; I don't know nothing about soldiering."

"Where, then, did you get the rank of colonel?" "It's a kunnel by marriage, sah?" "By marriage? How's that?"

"I married the widow of a kunnel sal-Kunnel Thompson of Waco."

Both of One Mind.

A henpecked gentleman determined to have a night with his friends against the will of his wife. He was resolved that he would go, and she was equally certain that he should not. He did not appear, however, and his friends, missing him, for fun invaded his residence.
There they found both him and his wife sitting in their chairs fast asleep.
He had given her an opiate that he might slip away, and she had given him one that he might not.

Roosevelt and Dennis.

"Theodore Roosevelt has a fine sense of humor," said an old time New Yorker. "When he was police commissioner he used to go around and keep tabs on the police himself. He came upon one standing at a bar one night before a large, full grown glass of whisky which he was about to consume. Roosevelt touched him on the shoulder.

"What is your name?" he asked.

"What business is that of yours?"
the cop demanded. "What's your name?"

"My name is Roosevelt," answered that gentleman.

The cop drank the liquor, set down the glass, wiped his lips with the back of his hand and then turned on the commissioner.

"If your name is Roosevelt," said he, "my name is Dennis."

"Roosevelt let him off with a reprimand."

Give Us a Call. No Trouble to Show Goods

Our community was shocked at an early hour on the eve of Christmas when a telephone message brought to town the sad intelligence that Mrs. Elda Weller was dead. She was born on the 17th of Jan. 1873 and was formerly Adrienne Griffith, of Paynes Depot. On the 27th of April, 1907 she was married to Mr. Elda Collier, a prominent young farmer near town. They began housekeeping at once and had much to live for. Her death was caused by child birth, superinduced by uremic poison. She had not been well for the past two weeks but her condition not thought to be serious. She went into a rapid decline early Thursday afternoon, dying at 6 o'clock, about one hour after the birth of a baby boy. For many years she had been a devout member of the Presbyterian church, an interested worker in all of its organizations. Besides a husband and infant son she is survived by her mother and three brothers, all of whom reside at Payne's Depot, except one brother who is a teacher at Austin, Texas. She was buried Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the Presbyterian church, services by her pastor, Rev. R. S. Sanders. She was followed by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends to her last resting place in the Millersburg cemetery. Owing to the delay of trains in the West her brother from Texas did not arrive until after the burial. The husband and other members of the family have the sympathy of the entire community in their irreparable loss.

—Mr. C. C. Chancellor visited relatives in Maysville from Saturday till Tuesday. —Miss Mabelle Mann, of Carlisle, is spending the holidays with Miss M. B. Clark. —Mrs. C. M. Best is much better and was able to take a short drive Christmas day. —Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Allen are spending the holidays with relatives at Owingsville. —Richard Butler, of Paris, spent Christmas with his father, Mr. Andrew Butler, and family. —Dr. H. C. Burroughs spent Friday and Saturday with his daughter, Mrs. James Spencer of Carlisle. —J. E. Caldwell and family, of Helena, spent from Friday till Monday with his sister, Mrs. J. C. Leer. —Mrs. Margaret Dorsey spent from Thursday till Saturday with her sons, Wm. and Ed. Dorsey, at Carlisle. —Mrs. Gertrude Johnson and family are spending the holidays with relatives in Cincinnati and Cynthiana. —Mr. and Mrs. Ed. M. Neal. —Mr. F. F. Hurst and family spent from Thursday till Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, at Elizaville. —Elder T. B. Knox, of Versailles, preached at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening, creating a good impression. —Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Hutchings, of Harrisburg, arrived Friday to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Belle Taylor and family. —Mr. Clarence Miller, of Cynthiana, is spending the holidays with his mother and sister, Mrs. Ada Miller and daughter, Miss Kate. —Mrs. R. A. Miller and son, James, who have been the guests of her mother, Mrs. Mary Whaley, for two months left Monday for their home at Los Angeles, Cal. —Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray, of Cincinnati, arrived Thursday as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rankin. Mr. Murray returned Sunday. Mrs. Murray will remain a couple of weeks. —The number of Christmas presents received here this year were numerous and costly, but the most valuable one coming to our knowledge was that which was received Friday afternoon by W. D. McIntyre, when his wife presented him with a handsome daughter—Sarah Louise.

Mrs. Mary Mathers, aged 73, died suddenly Friday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, at the home of her son, Dr. C. W. Matheers, near town. She had been in failing health for about a year and had practically given up her home at Carlisle in the early fall and was spending the winter with Dr. Mathers. Her condition was not thought to be critical. She had eaten an unusually hearty Christmas dinner. About 4 o'clock she was seized with a hemorrhage of the stomach and died before medical aid could reach her. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Carlisle Presbyterian church by her pastor, Dr. H. M. Scudder. Burial in Carlisle cemetery. She was the mother of two sons, one of whom died early in life.

Preparatory services for the protracted meeting which is to begin next Monday night will open Wednesday afternoon with the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church, then services each evening during the rest of the week with a sunrise prayer meeting Friday morning.

The Christian church presented their organist, Miss Lula McNamara, with a handsome cut glass pitcher; the Sunday school their superintendent, Dr. H. C. Burroughs with a handsome umbrella. The Methodist church presented their organist, Miss Katherine Miller, with a handsome purse.

Judge Hargis' Intentions Good.

That the late Judge James Hargis made a profession of religion, but was shot to death before he could be baptized and formally received into the church, was made known for the first time Sunday in a sermon preached at the First Baptist church in Lexington by Rev. W. B. Powell, of Louisville, corresponding secretary for the Kentucky Baptist Missionary Society.

The two story frame cottage on High street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, belonging to Mary Ann Judy, colored, was destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. ## Killed by Hazers.

One of the members of the grand jury which investigated the mysterious disappearance of Willis E. Smith, State University student, several months ago, at Lexington, declared Saturday his belief that the body of Smith would be found under the 18 feet of earth which covers the truck sewer in the southern part of the city. A letter from a woman who feared to reveal her identity told of a colloquy between students on the night of his disappearance and a fight in which one student, was fleeing from the others, was felled with a stone and carried away for dead. The grand jury had estimate of the cost of removing the dirt from the sewer made but decided that the cost was too great to warrant the undertaking. Smith's brother may take up the matter where the grand jury left off.

Nominations for Kentucky Future.

Secretary Horace Wilson, of Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association, announces that December payments have been made on 947 weanlings in the 19th renewal of the $21,000 Kentucky Futurity for foals of 1908, out of a possible entry of 1,021 mares, that being the number named last March in this great stake. This is the largest per centage (being over 90 per cent.) ever named in the Futurity, and is one of the most remarkable testimonials to the popularity of the Old Kentucky Association and its methods that it has ever received. The entries come from 37 States and territories, as well as from Europe, and the list of nominators aggregate 81, of which only forty have named more than four colts, and these have named less than half of the aggregate number.

Bloody Fight Christmas Morning

Deputy United States Marshal John Mullins, of Richmond, Ky., and Richard Ross, a miner living at Stearns, were instantly killed in a battle between United States Marshals and miners at Stearns, in Whitley county, sixty-six miles South of Danville, Christmas morning.

The McFerran Hotel, in which the miners were barricaded, was burned, presumably to smoke the miners out. It is thought that four or five of the miners were buried alive in the hotel.

United States Marshals Tate and Ryan, of Somerset were wounded, but it is thought that their wounds are not of a serious character.

The trouble came about as the result of an attempt on the part of union miners to organize the non-union miners at Stearns, numbering over 300.

All was quiet at the mining town of Stearns Sunday night. The arrival of two companies of State militia seemed to awe the natives. Gov. Wilson has ordered the Somerset company back home, and the Lexington company will remain to protect the town and property of the Stearns Company. United States Marshal Sharp was at Stearns Sunday for a few hours, but he left for his home at Covington that night. Berry Simpson, the alleged leader of the striking miners, and his followers, are hiding in the mountains across the border in Tennessee.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Mamie Ray Allison and Mr. Caswell Prewitt Willmott were united in marriage on Wednesday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fretwell, in this city, Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, of Second Presbyterian church, officiating.

The bride is a most estimable young woman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allison, and looked very handsome in a gown of green broadcloth with hat and gloves to match.

The groom is a popular young farmer of the Hutchison neighborhood. They left immediately after the ceremony for a Southern trip.

Miss Gretude Marshall, of Carlsbad, and Mr. W. D. Myers, of Mason county, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in the private office of County Clerk Paton, Judge Denis Dundon officiating.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Miss Ellis Baseman Speagle and Mr. Frederick M. Grater. The couple were united in marriage by Elder Carey E. Moragn, at his residence on Twelfth street.

DEATHS.

Mr. Hazel Linville, aged 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Linville, and residing with his brother-in-law, Mr. Claude Johnson, near Ruddles Mills, died at an early hour Friday morning of pneumonia. The funeral services were held from the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment took place in the Paris cemetery.

Mr. D. E. Swart, who was being hurried to a Lexington hospital, Thursday, for an operation in the hope of saving his life, died as the L. & N. train entered the Union Depot at Lexington.

Mr. Swart resided on Pleasant street, where his wife conducts a boarding house. He was a clerk in W. T. Talbot's clothing store, where he was on Monday before performing his duties in his usual health. He was taken sick suddenly that night and rapidly grew worse. Physicians diagnosed his trouble as locked bowels. He had been operated on for appendicitis about four years ago.

The funeral was held at the Baptist church, at Pisgah, in Fleming county, Sunday, the body accompanied by the funeral party leaving Paris on the 5:55 a.m. train, Sunday morning.

The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. George Varden, assisted by Rev. George W. Clarke. The burial service was in charge of Paris Lodge of Woodmen of America of which the deceased was a member.

Dr. Varden, who preached the funeral discourse, received Mr. Swart into the church on or more than thirty years ago and officiate at his marriage.

Mr. Wm. Hinton, Jr., aged 36 years, passed away Thursday evening, at 5:45 o'clock, after several days illness with typhoid pneumonia. The announcement of the death of this popular young man was great shock to his host of friends, but few knowing of his illness, he being confined to his bed for about one week.

The deceased is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hinton, Sr., and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Eddie Spears, and an infant son, Wm. Spears Hinton.

The funeral services were held from the residence on Pleasant street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Geo. W. Clark, of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. R. S. Litsinger, of the Episcopal church. The burial took place in the Paris cemetery, where the services were conducted by the Masonic lodge, he being a prominent Mason. He was also a member of the Paris Lodge of Elks, No. 373.

The pall-bearers were: Robert Lyne, Albert Hinton, O. L. Davis, Clell Turney, Hume Payne, Oscar Peddicord, Charles McMillan and Walter Hedges.

A large crowd of sorrowing friends attended the funeral to pay their last respects to the departed.

John Mahoney, aged 36 years, died at his home, near Ruddles Mills, Sunday morning. He was the last surviving member of Company G, Second Kentucky Infantry, Orphan Brigade, that had passed away, the only surviving member being James A. McDonald, of Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. Mahoney was a native of Ireland, and at the outbreak of the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate service and fought with unexampled daring and bravery till its close.

It is said that Mr. Mahoney participated in more battles, was often wounded and recovered and carried more scars as an evidence of his service to the cause of the South than perhaps any other soldier that survived the memorable struggle.

His company was commanded by the late Capt. E. F. Spears, of Paris, who held Mr. Mahoney in the highest esteem and who bore testimony to his unfaltering devotion to the South, his great bravery and high soldierly qualities. Mr. Mahoney's last visit to Paris was two years ago, when his beloved Captain passed away.

It was one of the last requests of Capt. Spears that when Mr. Mahoney died he should bear the expense of the funeral, and accordingly his son, Mr. Woodford Spears, upon hearing of the death of Mr. Mahoney, instructed Col. A. T. Forsyth to spare no expense in providing for the funeral and present the bill to him for payment.

The funeral services were held at the Catholic church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn.

The interment was in the Paris Catholic cemetery and was in charge of the Confederate Veterans. The following were the pall-bearers: Dr. C. J. Clarke, George Gregory L. J. Fretwell, W. A. Morris, F. D. Shea and A. T. Forsyth.

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING MEALS OUT."

Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder afflictions. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says, "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Unfortunate Allusion.
"Uncle," said the impetuous nephew, "you ought to go and see the new play. You would just die of laughing." The old man merely glared. A few minutes later there could be heard the sound of a scratching pen as he altered his will.—Stray Stories.

The Illyrians.
The Illyrian province formed a short-lived government, being instituted by Napoleon in 1809, from various territories taken from Austria, north and east of the Adriatic. The government was abolished in 1814-15. The ancient Illyrians are now represented by the Albanians, which fact doubtless gave the little kingdom its title.

The Night Rider Oath.

The night rider oath in full is here given, as brought out in the trials at Union City, Tenn.:

"You do solemnly swear, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, that you desire to become a night rider; that you will not write, talk or tell to anyone of the secrets of this order of night riders; that, if you do talk, write or tell to any person any of the secrets of the order, we are permitted to do with you as we see fit. You know earth, hell and destruction will be your portion, and that your body will not be buried in a graveyard. Do you willingly and freely submit to all this, so help you God?"

Get Jail Sentences.

The contempt case of the Buck's stove and Range Company, a nonresident Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, was decided by Justice Wright, of the Appellate Court of the district of Columbia, adversely to the Federation officials. Gompers was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment, Mitchell to nine months and Morrison to six months. The case grew out of the alleged boycott of the company's products and the putting of that company on the unfair list, and the Federation's alleged violation of Judge Gould's recent mandamus.

Confederates are Remembered.

The fifteen confederate soldiers in the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, who enlisted from Bourbon, were remembered Christmas day by Richard Hawes Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, who sent by express a large box of Christmas delicacies, consisting of one dozen large cakes, jars of preserves, fruits, nuts, of all kinds and chickens.

Must Furnish Inducements.

A New York scientist who has made a study of longevity is responsible for the startling statement that man ought to live forever. At present there are not enough inducements to make even lasting life on earth desirable. The scientist must find a way of guaranteeing a living as well as life.

Change Easily Made.

Five-year-old Helen was industriously hemming a square of pink gingham for a doll's table cover. She held it up and examined it critically. "Mother," she said, "I don't think this is a very stylish tablecloth. I guess I'll put a pair o' sleeves in it and call it a corset cover."—The Delineator.

A Big Christmas Ship.

The biggest Christmas ship that ever sailed the seas left New York the other day bound for Europe. It was the big Lusitania which holds the world's speed record for crossing the Atlantic. The Lexington Herald announces its annual bargain offer for $5.00 per year to mail subscribers who pay a year in advance before January 15th. This applies only to mail subscribers who are not in arrears. All subscribers who are not in arrears may secure this reduced rate by paying up to January 1, 1909, and paying $5.00 in advance for the next year. New subscribers may receive the paper by mail on payment of $5.00 in advance. In addition to what Herald subscribers have received heretofore there will get on Monday morning an agricultural weekly which will also carry the news of the day. The regular subscribers of the daily editions of the Herald will receive the Blue Grass Farmer edition.

The Blue Grass Farmer edition will be for $1.00 a year and The Sunday Herald for $1.50 a year.

Heavy Fines.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has upheld the contentions of the Attorney General in the outer suit of the State against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and Republic Oil Company of Ohio, fining each of the defendants $50,000 and ousting them from the State. The court was unanimous in its opinion. The result is a great victory for Attorney General Hadley, who was a pioneer in the fight against the oil trust.

A Little Woman.

"I want to get a mitten, please," said the little girl, "if it don't cost too much." "Oh, you mean a pair of mittens, don't you, my child?" replied the shopkeeper. "No, just one; one that's suitable for a boy that's goin' to propose an' be rejected."

Sat on the Salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross had a funny experience with an eight-pound salmon at Green lake recently. After being hooked the salmon jumped right into the arms of Mrs. Gross and slid through to the bottom of the boat. Mrs. Gross promptly sat on the fish and made good its capture.—Montreal Herald.

Death Was on His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every colds the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Wages.

The great white czar gets a salary of $25,000 a day, the sultan of Turkey $18,000, the emperor of Austria $12,000, the kaiser $11,299, the king of Italy about $7,200, the king of England $6,270, Leopold of Belgium $1,700, and President Roosevelt $137. Napoleon's salary was about $15,000 a day. The president of France gets about $617 a day.—N. Y. Press.

Depth at Which Miners Can Work.

Below fifty feet the temperature rises in the proportion of one degree for every sixty-five feet of depth except where currents of water carry the heat away. The result is that at a depth of about 4,000 feet we reach a temperature of 98 degrees, or blood heat. This renders it exceedingly difficult to work coal pits below that depth. This is the reason that Great Britain's coal commission decided that mines are not workable below 4,000 feet.

The thickness of the solid rocks building up the crust of the earth is at least thirty to forty miles. At that depth the heat is such as would reduce everything on the surface of the earth to liquid. But the pressure of the overlying rocks is so great that until the relation of the heat to the pressure is known it cannot be said whether the earth at that depth is fluid or solid.—Chicago Tribune.

Not "Lost in London."

The confession of the provost of the Great St. Bernard hospice that he almost got lost in London and found it more bewildering than his own Alps recalls to the London Chronicle a remarkable feat of the great guide Melchior Anderegg of Meiringen. He had never seen a larger town than Berne when he visited London, and when two famous climbers, Leslie Stephen and T. W. Hinchliff, met him at London Bridge station and walked with him thence to Lincoln's Inn Fields there was a thick London fog. Nevertheless when a day or two later the three were at the same station, returning from a trip to Woolwich, Mr. Hinchliff confidently said, "Now, Melchior, you will lead us back home." And straight to Lincoln's Inn Fields Melchior guided them, pausing only once.

Why Joyner Left Home.

"Are you ready to receive the obligations?" asked the most upright supreme hocus pocus of the Order of Hoot Owls.

"I am," said the candidate firmly.

"Then take a sip of this prussic acid, place your right hand in this pot of boiling lead, rest your left hand upon this revolving buzzsaw, close your eyes and repeat after me."

Early next morning shreds of Joyner's clothing were found upon the bushes and trees all along the road to Pottsville, thirty miles distant, and at Scrabbletown, sixty miles away, he was reported still headed west.—Judge.

Knew the Symptoms.

The Minister—John, John, I am surprised to see you. What good does it do you getting muddled like this, putting you off your work? When you go to bed you cannot sleep, your tongue is parched, your head is like to split, and you have no appetite. John—Gle, us yer hand, sir; ye've been drunk yourself.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Useful Key.

"What is this peculiar key on your typewriter? I never saw it on any before."

"Hist! My own invention. Whenever you can't spell a word you press this key and it makes a blur."—Boston Transcript.

Changed.

Nell—Maud couldn't have thought much of that fellow she married. Belle—Why? Nell—She boasts that she has made another man of him.—Philadelphia Record.

Everybody stumbles, but no man need lie in the mud.—Gentleman.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Milk Fed Edible Rats.

The Chinese diplomat regarded his grilled frogs' legs with faint disgust.

"I suppose they are good," he faltered.

"It is hard, though, to conquer my repulsion. Yet they are clean—clean feeders, eh?"

The American laughed long and loud.

"You," he cried, "are repelled by frogs' legs, you who eat dogs and rats!"

"Ah, but," said the Chinaman, "our edible dogs and rats are the cleanest feeders imaginable. They are equal to celery fed duck or California peach fed hog. They are confined in runs, you know, and to make their flesh white and delicate they are fed on mushes of bread and milk and vegetables—no meat whatever.

"You Americans think it disgusting to eat rats and dogs because you imagine them fattening on carrion and offal. But these frogs here—No, I'm afraid I can't. They may have fed on some tramp suicide for all I know."

He pushed back his plate and waited for the next course.

The Elusive Chuckwalla.

The chuckwalla is one of the most interesting of the creatures to be found in southern California's great desert. The chuckwalla seeks to escape his adversary by crawling into a crevice of a rock so narrow that it seems impossible to get him out. But the Indians have learned all his tricks and how to circumvent them. To the desert aborigine the chuckwalla is alluring. He feasts on the chuckwalla; hence he grows wise as to its habits.

He takes a piece of strong wire or a bent twig, and, poking it into the crevice, he taps the chuckwalla on the end of the nose. In a moment the angered reptile exhales a kind of hiss, the noise being made by a rapid expulsion of the breath. As he thus exhales he loses his hold on the rocks, and in a moment the Indian pulls on his tail. As speedily as a flash of lightning the chuckwalla inhales again and tightens himself in his recess. Another tap on his nose and then exhalation; another pull, another exhalation—so it goes until at last the Indian has him in hand. Then he cooks him.—Suburban Life.

"Bluegrass Routes."

We are closely watching the returns from the operation of the Interurban Train Service, with the idea of ascertaining the trains which are most popular with our patrons. As a result of this scrutiny and the falling off in travel, incident to the Winter season, we will put into service at 7 a. m., December 15th, our Winter schedule. There are not many changes in the schedule over that now in use. Briefly they are these:

The car leaving Lexington at 6 a. m. for Versailles and Frankfort will be taken off. A car, however, will leave Versailles at 6:45 a. m. for Frankfort, as usual.

The car leaving Versailles at 6:15 a. m. for Lexington will be taken off.

The car leaving Lexington at 8 p. m. for Paris, and the car leaving Paris at 9 p. m. on Saturday nights, will be taken off.

The car now leaving Lexington at 8 p. m. for Versailles and Frankfort and the car leaving Frankfort at 9:30 p. m. for Versailles and Lexington, will be taken off.

To take the place of the Lexington-Frankfort car to be taken off, we have provided a new service, in that a car will leave Lexington at 9 p. m. for Versailles and Frankfort, and a car will leave Frankfort at 10:30 p. m. for Versailles and Lexington.

The result of the new service will be a greater evenness of schedule and a closer connection from one Interurban line to another, particularly in the evening hours at Lexington, in that cars will leave for Georgetown, Paris and Versailles at 7, 9 and 11.

Time cards, or folders, will be ready for delivery at our offices and at the Center, at Lexington, on and after December 15, 1908.

Mrs. Pritchard Wins Big Land Suit.

Mrs. Anne Pritchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fretwell, has received a telegram from her attorneys in Huntington, W. Va., announcing a favorable decision in a large land suit in which she was interested, which was decided Thursday by the Court of Appeals of West Virginia.

Mrs. Pritchard's husband, the late Dr. J. T. Pritchard, was one of ten persons who invested a number of years ago in a tract of 143,000 acres of coal and timber land in Logan county, W. Va. The title to the property was disputed, other parties asserting ownership. Suit was brought in the Circuit Court, and an appeal taken to the highest Court in that State with the above result. The property is very valuable, thickly covered with fine timber and underlaid with rich vein of coal.
